

Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission

BUSINESS PLAN 2007-10

ALBERTA GAMING AND LIQUOR COMMISSION

The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) operates under the authority of the Gaming and Liquor Act. Its structure includes:

- A seven-member board that is appointed by the government and reports directly to the Solicitor General and Minister of Public Security. The board develops gaming and liquor policy to ensure Alberta's gaming and liquor industries are well regulated and managed on behalf of the people of the province. The board ensures the powers and duties of the AGLC are appropriately carried out through the Chief Executive Officer. Board members also conduct hearings and make decisions respecting licences and registrations, and are responsible for any other functions assigned to it.
- An administrative arm that manages the ongoing operations of the organization. The Chief Executive Officer of the Commission's administration reports to the board. This structure facilitates clear lines of communication and ensures policy implementation is consistent and operations run effectively and efficiently.

The AGLC's role - through its board and administrative arm - is to administer the Gaming and Liquor Act and related legislation. The AGLC is responsible for regulating Alberta's charitable gaming activities and conducting and managing provincial gaming activities. It also controls the manufacture, importation, sale, purchase, possession, storage, transportation, use and consumption of liquor in Alberta.

VISION

A province that strives to balance choice and social responsibility in its gaming and liquor industries, uses revenues resulting from these activities for the benefit of Albertans, and provides opportunity for competition and enhanced service in its gaming and liquor industries

MISSION

To ensure gaming and liquor activities in Alberta are conducted with integrity and social responsibility and to maximize long term economic benefits for Albertans.

VALUES

The AGLC is committed to operating according to the following values. We will:

1. Act with integrity and in a fair and impartial manner;
2. Balance social responsibility and economic benefit;
3. Foster clear, open and courteous communication with stakeholders;
4. Achieve excellence in customer service;
5. Nurture a working environment characterized by teamwork, collaboration, and open communication;
6. Embrace innovation and continuous improvement in our products, services and business processes; and
7. Serve as responsible stewards of assets entrusted to us, maintaining our accountability to the Province of Alberta.

CORE BUSINESS

The AGLC has three core businesses:

1. License and regulate liquor activities.
2. License and regulate charitable gaming activities.
3. Conduct and manage provincial gaming activities.

The AGLC is also responsible through a memorandum of understanding with Alberta Finance to provide enforcement and investigative services related to the Tobacco Tax Act and the Fuel Tax Act.

CORE BUSINESSES, GOALS, STRATEGIES & PERFORMANCE MEASURES

Core Business One: License and regulate liquor activities

GOAL ONE

1

Liquor activities are conducted with integrity and in a socially responsible manner

What it means The AGLC regulates all liquor activities in accordance with legislation, regulation and policy to ensure that liquor activities are conducted with integrity and encourage the responsible sale and consumption of liquor.

Strategies

- 1.1 Conduct regular reviews of policies in consultation with stakeholders to protect the integrity of liquor activities and to ensure Alberta's liquor industry remains progressive and competitive and meets current and future consumer demands.
- 1.2 Monitor Albertans' attitudes and preferences and emerging trends to ensure liquor products and services continue to be delivered in a socially responsible manner consistent with expectations of Albertans.
- 1.3 Conduct inspections of licensed premises and investigate all complaints concerning liquor activities.
- 1.4 Ensure all liquor revenues are collected and distributed in a timely manner and in accordance with legislation and AGLC policy.
- 1.5 Ensure beverage container management within the liquor industry is conducted according to the Beverage Container Recycling Regulation.
- 1.6 Work in collaboration with the liquor industry, the Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission (AADAC), government ministries, and other stakeholders to develop initiatives that encourage the responsible sale and consumption of liquor.
- 1.7 Work with government ministries, the liquor industry and other stakeholders to address Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder.
- 1.8 Implement, in collaboration with the staff of Alberta Solicitor General and Public Security, police services, municipalities and industry stakeholders, actions identified through the 2006-07 Roundtables to address the issue of violence in and around licensed premises.
- 1.9 Enhance the Alberta Server Intervention Training Program, including access to it by volunteers.

Core Business Three: Conduct and manage provincial gaming activities

GOAL FIVE

The availability and delivery of provincial gaming products and activities are balanced with consumer demand, social responsibility, and economic benefit to Albertans.

What it means The AGLC is responsible for the conduct and management of all provincial lotteries in Alberta under the authority of the Criminal Code (Canada), other federal and provincial legislation and policy. The AGLC offers a variety of provincial gaming products to Albertans, including provincial lotteries and electronic gaming entertainment choices (video lottery terminals, slot machines, and electronic bingo). The AGLC provides ticket lotteries and Keno in collaboration with the Western Canada Lottery Corporation (WCLC). The AGLC is committed to ensuring that the availability of these gaming activities is balanced to meet the current and future needs of consumers, communities and Albertans.

Strategies

- 5.1 Progressively leverage technology to protect the integrity of electronic gaming, and improve business efficiency and responsiveness. Provide product offerings and distribution channels consistent with consumer demand and business needs.
- 5.2 Monitor emerging trends and Albertans' attitudes, preferences and information needs to ensure quality electronic gaming products and services continue to be delivered in a socially responsible manner consistent with expectations of Albertans.
- 5.3 Evaluate current responsible gaming initiatives to assess their effectiveness in encouraging responsible gaming behaviour.
- 5.4 Work with AADAC and the gaming industry to enhance the Voluntary Self Exclusion Program and ensure gaming retailers incorporate responsible gaming information and programs in gaming venues.
- 5.5 Work in collaboration with the gaming industry, other jurisdictions, AADAC and other stakeholders to develop, implement and evaluate new initiatives that encourage responsible gaming.
- 5.6 Work with stakeholders to improve the awareness of how the Alberta Lottery Fund is used.
- 5.7 Ensure the AGLC is appropriately positioned to address gaming product trends, emerging technologies, and alternative distribution channels including the Internet.
